

FRENCH SWIMMING IN GREAT DRIVE AGAINST GERMANS

They Have Taken German Positions Considered Impregnable North of Arras and Are Continuing to Advance.

BRITONS ARE HOLDING BIG FORCE OF GERMANS

And Repulsing All Attempts to Reach Ypres. In the East the Russians Claim to Have Checked Austro-German Drive.

London, May 14.—The belligerents on both the east and west fronts are engaged in most momentous battles. The French, who already have been in possession of what was thought to be the impregnable German positions north of Arras, are reported to be continuing their victorious advance, while the British are asserted to be holding a large force of Germans in their front and repulsing all German attempts to reach Ypres, which has proved the graveyard of so many thousands of men since the opening lines were established there last autumn.

The Germans claim to have made a slight advance, but with the battle ebbing and flowing, that is not considered serious in military circles here. Along toward the coast the Belgian army has repulsed an attempt of the Germans to regain the bridgehead which King Albert's forces established on the right bank of the Yser canal, while down in the West another French army is pushing its offensive, and claims to have gained possession of the whole of the forest of Lepretre, which would be a step nearer in the allies' aim to force the Germans to evacuate St. Mihiel.

TEUTON DRIVE AGAINST RUSSIANS.

The Austro-Germans, after their lightning-like rush through western Galicia, now have reached a line running due north and south to the west of Przemyel, and are pressing the Russian flank. Even up in Poland it is asserted that the forces of the Teutonic allies in the south had the effect of forcing the Russians to fall back.

Members of Jury Enjoy Vaudeville And the "Movies"

Walter S. Daniels, on Trial for Killing William Waters, Given His Freedom on Friday Afternoon.

A visit to a moving picture show and later a theater party at a vaudeville performance under guard of a squad of deputy sheriffs were features Wednesday and Thursday nights with the jury in the case of Walter S. Daniels, on trial for manslaughter.

Friday afternoon they returned a verdict of acquittal, liberating Daniels, who was on trial for the slaying of William Waters in front of the Carnegie library two months ago.

The Daniels trial lasted three days. The jury was confined at night in the Kimball house. Chafing under confinement during the first night of the trial, a trip to the movies was suggested.

Court officers were consulted, and the twelve men who were the fate of Daniels in their hands were permitted to attend the Grand theater Wednesday night under guard of the deputies assigned to them by order of the court.

So far as can be ascertained, it is the first instance of the kind in the history of Fulton county.

Riots in Rome and at Other Places Cause Announcement That Salandra and Sonnino Will Remain in Power.

Twelve cabin passengers on the Anchor line steamship Transylvania, bound for Liverpool and Glasgow over the same route as that of the Lusitania, canceled their passage a few minutes before the liner steamed from the Cunard Steamship company's pier at the foot of West Fourteenth street, New York.

The sailing of the Transylvania was marked by much excitement and indecision among the passengers as a result of the sinking of the last Cruiser on the coast of Ireland. Although only a handful of passengers quit the vessel through fear that the Transylvania might meet the same fate as the Lusitania, fully a hundred passengers spent anxious moments in trying to decide whether they should risk the voyage.

It was stated in New York Friday that the Transylvania would enter the war zone probably today.

London, May 15.—At 3:35 a. m.—At Lloyd's yesterday insurance on the cargo of the steamer Transylvania, which sailed from New York last Saturday for Liverpool, was written at a premium of 5 per cent.

FATHER BOUND OVER ON PITYFUL STORY OF YOUNG DAUGHTER

Robert E. Brown Arrested at Instance of Neighbors. Girl's Confession Tells of Father's Gross Immorality.

In a full confession made to the city detective and signed in the presence of a notary public, Vesta Brown, the 17-year-old daughter of Robert E. Brown, of 73 Tye street, charged her father Friday with such gross immorality that Recorder Johnson held the man in a $1,000 bond.

The girl is in the custody of the police and may be sent to a reform school or a charitable home. She will be held, however, as a witness pending the trial of her father in the state criminal court.

A pitiful story was told by the girl in her confession. She said her mother died when she was a little child, and her father remarried. Her stepmother is totally blind, and was not aware of the conduct of the father.

The case was reported to the police by some of Brown's neighbors.

CAUSE OF DELAY NOT STATED

The reason for the delay was not stated, but state department messages have frequently been held up in their circuitous routes because they are in code and require careful sending to assure accuracy of the cipher groups.

The note had been sent over the French cable from New York to Havre, and thence by telegraph through France to the American embassy at Rome.

Inasmuch as it would require a few hours to decipher the note, it was believed by state department officials that it would not be ready for presentation until late this evening, and unless Ambassador Gerard had arranged a special engagement with the foreign minister, it probably would not be read to Mr. von Jagow until tomorrow.

Official Washington talked of little else than the note today. The practical approval of the note by the editorial comment of the American press, the statement of governors, senators and members of the house was reinforced by an incessant stream of messages from persons of every political party and from a variety of organizations and associations.

Wilson told his callers he was deeply grateful and appreciated the patriotic feeling that was being given him on every side.

The president appeared somewhat relieved of the strain of the last week. This was due to the fact that there was no delay in the presentation of the note to the foreign minister.

White House Flooded With Messages Indorsing Note and Expressing Confidence in President—Early Reply Is Expected From Germany.

Washington, May 14.—The note sent to Germany yesterday by a sequel to the Lusitania disaster was delayed in transmission because of congested cables, and probably will not be presented by Ambassador Gerard to the minister of foreign affairs in Berlin until some time tomorrow.

Secretary Bryan received a message from Ambassador Thomas Nelson Paze at Rome saying the note, which had been addressed to the American embassy there to be forwarded by telegraph, had arrived at 2 p. m. today, and that in an hour and forty minutes it had been copied and relayed to Berlin by telegraph via Vienna.

AUTO TOUR BOOSTED BY TRIP ON FRIDAY

Marietta, Kennesaw, Acworth and Cartersville Visited by Autoists.

An enthusiastic party of ten, filling two Studebaker autos, visited the towns of Marietta, Acworth, Atlanta, Kennesaw and Cartersville Friday afternoon to extend an invitation to each municipality and county to join the "Seeing Georgia" tour, which starts from Atlanta Saturday, May 22.

This was a "making friends" trip and those in the party were cordially received and many promises of cars to join the tour were made. At Marietta the party was greeted by Mayor E. P. Dobbs, Acworth Mayor Herbert Clay, Moultrie M. Sessions and a crowd of representative citizens at the court house. President C. J. Haden, of the Georgia Chamber of Commerce, under whose auspices the tour is being arranged, made a brief talk, inviting Marietta people to have cars in the tour, and seven cars were promptly promised.

On the way to Cartersville, one of the county of Cobb and five from the furniture and marble manufacturers.

At Acworth the tourists were met by a committee headed by R. L. McMillan, a leading merchant, and thence the road led to Marietta, that charming little village, surrounded by the fine roads of Bartow county, upon which the auto tour is being made. The county has recently spent $55,000 on the new highway, and this is one of the best pieces of road building in Georgia. On through Emerson and into the thriving city of Cartersville the party went to be met at Cartersville by President W. H. Field, of the Georgia Chamber of Commerce, and a committee of citizens. Lunch was the first thing on the program, given at the Park hotel, after which at a called meeting in the city hall short talks were made by President Haden, of the Georgia Chamber of Commerce, and Colonel W. H. Field, of the Cartersville Chamber of Commerce.

Rome's Tax Rate.
Rome, Ga., May 14.—(Special).—Rome's city commissioners have fixed the tax rate for 1915 at the same as last year, $1.40, and the street tax has been reduced from $3 to $2. It was the commission's intention to reduce the tax rate, but owing to the need of funds for important public improvements it was decided to leave the rate the same as heretofore.

MISS GAILEY PLAYS AND MISS BIGHTON WILL SING SUNDAY

The Atlanta Music Festival association announces that Miss Mary Denslow Gailey, the noted violinist, has consented to play at the free organ recital at the Auditorium-Armory Sunday afternoon. She will render several attractive selections.

Miss Gailey is known the country over as a master of her instrument and an artist in every sense. She has appeared before Atlanta audiences on several occasions, and has won many admirers among the music loving public here. She will not doubt receive an enthusiastic welcome on her return appearance here tomorrow afternoon. Besides Miss Gailey's numbers, Dr. Kraft has arranged a delightful program of organ music for the Sunday recital.

Miss Matilda Bighton, of New York, a noted contralto, will sing at the recital. Miss Bighton has been in New Orleans, singing there in the oratorio "Messiah," and was persuaded to stay over in Atlanta on her way back to New York for the purpose of singing at the Sunday recital.

She will sing the beautiful aria, "The Lord is a Man of War," from the oratorio "Messiah," and also a group of three English songs. An unusually large attendance is expected at the Sunday organ recital.

CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY OF BATTLE OF RESACA

Calhoun, Ga., May 14.—(Special).—The local chapter of U. D. C. celebrated Memorial day at the Confederate cemetery at Resaca, this being the fifth anniversary of the day on which the battle of Resaca was fought, one of the bloodiest battles in the south.

Through the active efforts of the Calhoun chapter the Confederate cemetery at Resaca has recently been beautified and is well cared for. This is one of the largest and most beautiful of Confederate cemeteries of north Georgia and lies on the proposed route of the Dixie highway.

Colonel Sam W. Wilkes, of Atlanta, was the orator of the day and a large crowd was present to honor the memory of the dead.

FIFTEEN BLACKS FREED OF CHARGE OF ARSON

Louisville, Ga., May 14.—(Special).—W. R. Joyner, state fire inspector, was at Louisville yesterday to conduct the trial against fifteen negroes charged with house burning. This case has been worked up by a detective. One Jim Francis, after making an affidavit about the burning on the stand, denied knowing anything about the case. Therefore a warrant was sworn out against him for perjury. He tried to make his escape by a dash for liberty, but he was seized by the sheriff and his fellow prisoners and landed him safely. The case against all the negroes was dismissed.

POOL ROOMS BANISHED BY ROME COMMISSION

Rome, Ga., May 14.—(Special).—The city of Rome will have no pool rooms during the coming year. For several weeks the question has been before the city commissioners, and a final decision was made last night. The vote was three against permitting pool rooms, and one in favor. It is possible that pool room operators will call an initiative election until the new city charter, requiring the submission of the matter to the people.

Piedmont Park Lake Opens To Host of Bathers Today

MISS GLAD WILHELM.

Ready to take her first swim of the season. The season at Piedmont Park will formally open this morning and a great crowd of bathers is expected.

While the swimming season at Piedmont Park lake begins at 8:30 o'clock this morning, there was one fair young bather yesterday who could not wait for this formal opening. In the picture above, Miss Glad Wilhelm, the first rather of the season, is shown just before she had her swim.

Within a few days she expects her bathing suit, recently ordered from a New York firm, to arrive. In the meantime, however, she has only her brother's suit, which was left over from last year.

So if she had waited until the official opening of the bathing season, she would have been prevented from venturing into the waters in such unbecoming garb. But there are no policemen present during the off-season at Atlanta lakes. Miss Wilhelm is a graceful swimmer and a devotee to the sport.

Piedmont promises to enjoy its most prosperous year. The opening drive will be taken this morning at 8:30 o'clock. The bath house and other facilities have been improved, additions built, and all preparations finished to care for the largest patronage this summer in the park's history.

Whitfield's Grain Crop.

Dalton, Ga., May 14.—(Special).—It is generally reported that the cotton crop in this county is largely reduced as compared with that of last year. This is substantiated by the sale of fertilizer, which has been considerably smaller this season than usual. Various grain crops have been substantially reduced, and the recent rains have greatly revived them and promoted the general outlook.

Dr. T. M. Hall Honored.

Milledgeville, Ga., May 14.—(Special).—Dr. Thomas M. Hall, of this city, was highly honored last week at the convention of surgeons of the Central of Georgia railway, which met in Birmingham, by being unanimously elected president of the organization.

Dr. Hall is a prominent physician and surgeon, and has been active in the work of the Central of Georgia railway for many years.

He is a member of the American Medical Association and the Georgia Medical Society.

Dr. Hall is a native of Georgia and has spent most of his life in this state.

He is a devoted family man and has a large family.

RACE QUESTION RAISED IN U. S. COURT AT MACON

Exclusion of Negroes From Juries Used to Save Alleged Murderer.

Macon, Ga., May 14.—For the first time in the history of the United States court for the southern district of Georgia the race question was raised today when attorneys for Robert Kitchen, a negro, sought to have him released on a writ of habeas corpus. Kitchen is charged with the murder of H. A. Brantley, a white man.

The application for the writ charged that a negro was being deprived of his rights under the fourteenth amendment, in that negroes were excluded from the jury box.

Federal Judge Speer announced that he could not grant the writ, but would grant an appeal to the United States supreme court, which will be taken. The same procedure is being followed as was taken in the Frank case.

Federal Judge Emory Speer late tonight issued a formal court order directing Sheriff Hamilton, of Washington county, to stay the execution of the negro, Kitchen, pending the consideration of the appeal by the supreme court of the United States.

ROOSEVELT TALKED; BARNES LISTENED

say he was subjected to constant solicitation on the senatorial question, however.

He said he had met Charles F. Murphy once at a dinner and had not seen him since. He declared he had not talked about the senatorship with him or any of his agents.

"Did you ever meet Mr. Loeb in the office of J. S. Hatcher & Co.?"

"Oh, yes, I met him there. It must have been after the election of 1912."

Mr. Loeb testified to a conversation with you about the senatorship, he said you had with Mr. Murphy. Did you have such a conversation with him?"

Mr. Barnes replied Mr. Barnes was asked by Mr. Hovver: Did you see Colonel Roosevelt frequently or of the frequently during the first year of his term?"

"Infrequently."

"Did you ever fairly well acquainted with him?"

"I think so."

"Did you have talks in which you expressed your respective views?"

"No, just the contrary."

"You said he used to talk and you used to listen. You remember saying that?"

Roosevelt Talked; Barnes Listened.

"I meant," Mr. Barnes replied, "that he used to talk and I used to listen after the presidential election in 1912."

"You said you knew of no issues between Colonel Roosevelt and Senator Platt. Didn't you also say you talked with Colonel Roosevelt about the relations between them?"

"No, that is not true. The word issue means a division."

"Is that the correct meaning?"

Roosevelt did talk to you about Senator Platt, did he not?"

"Yes."

"Did he talk about affairs at Albany?"

"Yes."

"About appointments?"

"You always had a good many requests for such matters from other people, did you not?"

"Yes, until recently."

In reply to other questions Mr. Barnes then said that he saw the defendant "two or three times," said from at the dinners both attended. He said the conversations about Senator Platt were "general," and in reply to a question as to whether Colonel Roosevelt had asked his advice, Mr. Barnes replied that at a meeting he declined to think that he told me what he was going to do."

What Roosevelt Told Barnes.

"He said he was going to get along with Senator Platt and be governor."

"Why did he tell you that?"

"He assumed, I guess, that I thought that was impossible."

"Did you think so?"

"No."

In reply to specific questions about Senator Platt's opposition to the franchise, Mr. Barnes said that the latter was not in the habit of talking about political considerations, as he could not remember everything that happened during the long ago. Mr. Barnes said he kept a "political diary." In it there was, he said, "the people I saw and who saw me. Mr. Barnes said he looked the diary over. Then he named some of the names who were seen with Roosevelt." In reply to a question he said: "I had no conversations except the most perfunctory ones, in the executive chamber."

"How did you happen to speak about political organizations to Colonel Roosevelt?"

"I suppose, because he was interested in politics and so was I."

"Did you ever talk to Colonel Roosevelt about political considerations?"

Roosevelt and Contributions.

"I talked to him about the contributions of Mr. Anthony Brady had made to the democratic and about Mr. Pruyn contributing to the republicans."

"Do you remember a letter written by you to Colonel Roosevelt in which you said the establishment of a state printing house would hurt you financially?"

"Did you see him on that subject?"

"I couldn't" answer to it."

"Did you write to any one else about that?"

"To Senator Platt."

"Why the establishment of a state printing house would have been detrimental to the business of the Journal company as well as to every other printing house in Albany?"

"Would a state printing establishment have any effect upon the publishing of a newspaper?"

"Yes, the matter of price and wages."

"Were you interested with Mr. James B. Lyon in printing?"

"Yes, Mr. Lyon and myself were the owners of the state printing contract for 1915. I purchased the contract from Mr. McCarthy."

TWO COMPANION BODIES NEAR MELLISH'S COMET

Cambridge, Mass., May 14.—Professor Barnard of the Yerkes observatory at Williams Bay, Wis., has discovered two companion bodies near Mellish's comet, according to an official announcement received today from the Harvard observatory. One of the bodies observed on May 12 was conspicuous and had a distance from the comet of 21 seconds and a position angle of 355 degrees. The other body was faint and occupied an intermediate position in the same line.

NEW JUDICIAL CIRCUIT NOT STRONGLY BACKED

Representatives of Crawford, Houston, Talbot, Taylor and Macon Defer Action.

Macon, Ga., May 14.—(Special.)—The project to establish a new judicial circuit out of Houston, Crawford, Taylor and Macon counties, making Bibb a circuit unto itself, does not seem to be meeting with very general approval, and unless there is a greater change in the legislature convenes than there is at the present time, such a project would have very little chance of going through, according to the opinion expressed by members of the Macon bar.

A meeting of representatives of the counties which would comprise the new circuit was held today in Valley, but action was deferred when it was stated that a separate circuit might be made of Bibb at the coming session of the general assembly. It was said by those at the meeting that they first desired to learn the attitude of Bibb on the proposed plan.

It was pointed out that the conditions existing in several of the counties mentioned above are such as to relieve the congested condition of this end will be insisted on before the next legislative session.

Local lawyers say that the business of this circuit, as now constituted, is so large that it is well up to the mark, and that no inconvenience has been complained of by party litigants at any time.

The entire Perry bar is said to be opposed to any change in the circuit, and that the business of this circuit, as now constituted, is so large that it is well up to the mark, and that no inconvenience has been complained of by party litigants at any time.

3 AMERICANS KILLED BY THE YAGUI INDIANS

Cruiser New Orleans Ordered to Guaymas to Give Assistance.

Nogales, Sonora, Mexico, May 14.—General Sosa, with 400 Villa troops, arrived today at Nogales, Sonora, where a small American colony has been in battle with the Yaqui Indians. The Indians are enraged because the Mexican government has refused to return to them lands in the Yaqui river valley.

Advices today said that William Smith, previously reported killed, was wounded, having lost an arm in the fighting. Z. O. Stocker, appears to have been wounded also. The American dead are reported to be three.

Villa authorities here were informed tonight that American owners of the ranches in the Yaqui valley had asked the Washington government to order a landing party from one of the American warships on the Mexican coast to go to the aid of the American colonists. Adolphe de Vega, Mayor of Nogales, chief of staff, commenting on this, declared that permission would not be granted for men to land from warships.

WARSHIP GOES TO AID AMERICANS.

On Board U. S. S. Colorado, off San Diego, May 14.—Admiral Howard, commanding the Pacific fleet, has dispatched the cruiser New Orleans to Guaymas, from Mazatlan, where she recently reported, however, have been at Guaymas the troops were reported to be mutinous on Tuesday because of the lack of food and shelter.

Quiet was restored by the arrival of the American warship, which supplies from the merchants and sells them at reduced prices to the soldiers.

Hardest among the Indians is said to have been caused by the alleged failure of the United States government to restore lands which the Indians have been claiming.

MARINES TO LAND IF NECESSARY.

On Board U. S. S. Colorado, off San Diego, May 14.—Secretary Daniels late today ordered the cruiser New Orleans to Guaymas, from Mazatlan, where she recently reported, however, have been at Guaymas the troops were reported to be mutinous on Tuesday because of the lack of food and shelter.

Quiet was restored by the arrival of the American warship, which supplies from the merchants and sells them at reduced prices to the soldiers.

Hardest among the Indians is said to have been caused by the alleged failure of the United States government to restore lands which the Indians have been claiming.

MARINES TO LAND IF NECESSARY.

On Board U. S. S. Colorado, off San Diego, May 14.—Secretary Daniels late today ordered the cruiser New Orleans to Guaymas, from Mazatlan, where she recently reported, however, have been at Guaymas the troops were reported to be mutinous on Tuesday because of the lack of food and shelter.

Quiet was restored by the arrival of the American warship, which supplies from the merchants and sells them at reduced prices to the soldiers.

Silver Cup Offered Mounted Policemen At Big Horse Show

The handsome silver cup offered by Miss Mary Allgood Jones to be contested for by the mounted policemen of both the city and county force at the charity horse show next Tuesday evening, created great interest when taken to the station house by the donor yesterday. Already sixteen officers have entered their names. They are J. W. Mashburn, J. W. West, P. V. West, C. T. Madden, G. D. Evans, W. L. Payne, J. D. Dorsett, E. O. Edleman, E. J. Padden, G. C. Fain, R. O. McWilliam, Hamilton, H. B. Rogers, H. Brannan, J. F. Denton and J. J. Spratlin.

In awarding prizes, the judges are to pass upon both the horsemanship of the officer and the appointments of his horse.

As the event draws near interest in the show is increasing. Many are entering the ring each day putting their horses through their paces and acclimating them to the ring and the hurdles. Each day new entries are recorded.

For the purpose of reaching the fair and country places, where there is no electricity available, one of the public men connected with the Maxwell company evolved the present equipment.

An electrical generator of sufficient capacity to give the current required for the show is being used. It is mounted on the running board of the left side of the car, with the pulley sufficiently overhanging to allow the drive belt to clear the rear fender. A pulley to line up with the generator pulley is built out from the rear wheel of sufficient size to give the proper speed to the armature shaft, and as all the time, a motor speed of only half the apparent number of R. P. M. is necessary.

On a switchboard is mounted the field regulating rheostat, with a voltmeter, line switch and fuse block, as well as the sockets for the motion picture machine and such lamps as are desired. The generator is mounted on heavy planks, which fit the running board, and is held in place by two clamps. The belt is, of course, detachable in a moment.

At the rear of the car is towed a 20-foot long scenery wagon, with a frame for the screen at the rear. At the front end of the wagon is a table of eight feet height for the motion picture machine.

Maxwell "Movies" To Be Shown Tonight On Ellis Street Lot

The "stunt" crew of the Maxwell automobile company has arranged to show the most interesting demonstrations which will be continued throughout next week. This afternoon the Maxwell company will hold a public demonstration of its new "Maxwell" car, which is expected to attract much attention from automobile enthusiasts.

The first exhibition of the moving pictures, which the Maxwell company will give this evening on the lot on the left side of the car, just opposite the Winslow hotel. The pictures will be shown at 7 o'clock.
